

AUDITION PIECE FOR ICE SPIRIT

ICE SPIRIT           (With a quick look to the audience) I am an Ice Spirit.

HANS                 Well if you're after a pie you're out of luck then.

ICE SPIRIT           Why?

NEES/HANS          'Cos we don't serve spirits!

ICE SPIRIT           I have escaped from the Snow Queen. I found a magic exit from her Ice Palace. The Snow Queen's Ice Palace is in the high mountains. It is a place of magic and danger. It is always icy cold and everything is always frozen solid, including the Snow Queen's heart. She cannot bear happiness and her power seems to come from other people's sadness. If anyone enters her Palace she turns their hearts to ice, and they become her slaves.

HANS                 Can you do any magic?

ICE SPIRIT           A little.

NEES                 Oh! Goody. Can you magic me up a bar of chocolate please?

ICE SPIRIT           (The lights dim as the Ice Spirit makes some magical moves and produces a small Chocolate bar for Nees) Ibble Bibble Bobbity Wibble

HANS                 That's amazing. But what are you doing here?

ICE SPIRIT           The Snow Queen's magic is growing and more of the land is falling under her power. I'm afraid that her icy cold touch may reach the village soon.

NEES                 We'd better warn the villagers.

ICE SPIRIT           The Snow Queen has very powerful magic, so you must all be careful. I will leave you one of my special things. (The lights dim again as before) Quibble Nibble Obbity Bobble. (Magically a large snowball appears) Here take my magic snowball. Keep him safe and maybe he can help you if the Snow Queen finds you. His name is (big build up)
